

LittleGreetings — Upload Pack (56 cards)

A2 horizontal (5.5 x 4.25). Proofs at actual size. Substitute fonts approximate your presets.

Two lines in one file: 24 30th-birthday cards (pages 2-25) and 32 Christmas cards (pages 26-57).

One keyword territory per listing across all 56 — no two compete for the same phrase, in either line.

30TH BIRTHDAY — 24 cards, codes Y / H / F

Head term is a trap: '30th birthday card' is 1,255 searches at KD 49, but 11,991 competing listings and 97 of the top 100 already tag it. The winners there are 1,245-4,861 days old. Tag it, do not spearhead with it.

Y1-Y10 are the priority. Birth-year cards are the biggest theme in that keyword's top 100 — 4 listings, ~2,418 estimated sales, including #2 and #4 overall, both 'Born In 1996' at $6.99 and $7.04. '1996 birthday card' has roughly 230 competing listings. Nothing in your catalog targets 1996 or 90s-kid, and it re-runs every year on the same designs: 1997 next, 1998 after.

H1-H10 target the supply gap: 35 of the top 100 aim at 'her', only 15 at 'him', and zero use '30th birthday card for him' as a tag. Your catalog is already 35 him / 11 her.

Six of the original 30 were cut for colliding with 30th cards you listed Aug 4 — sister, best friend, coworker, sarcastic-30th, leaving-my-20s and from-wife. H1 and F1 were rewritten rather than cut.

CHRISTMAS — 32 cards, codes R / Q / P

'rude christmas cards' 133 searches KD 53 1,539 competing — R1

'rude holiday card' 93 searches KD 55 1,145 competing — R2

'inappropriate christmas cards' 27 searches KD 61 438 competing — R3

Tag the PLURAL. 'rude christmas card' singular is KD 100 with 71 tag occurrences; the plural is KD 53 with 8.

Everything else is closed: sarcastic, snarky, offensive, naughty, dirty and adult christmas all KD 100, as are 'funny christmas card' (328 searches, 68 tag occurrences), 'new year card' (171) and 'funny holiday card' (113).

About 253 searches are genuinely winnable. This line is a seasoning and rec-feed play, not a search play — the point of listing it now is that it gets ninety days to age before demand arrives in October.

R1-R18 rude/sweary is the register your own conversion data favours, and it is entirely absent from your current 36 Christmas cards. Q1-Q8 is the sincere-underneath register. Q8 doubles as your second New Year card.

UPLOAD ORDER FOR TOMORROW

1. Create the section 30th Birthday Cards. You have 21st, 40th, 50th, 60th and 70&80th but no 30th, and the 21 cards you listed Aug 4 are still sitting in general Birthday.
2. Create the listings. Vela ignores the Section column on create, so section is a second pass.
3. Second-pass CSV with ALL media columns stripped — leaving them in re-uploaded images on 107 listings last time.
Route: 30th Birthday Cards (the 24, plus the 21 from Aug 4) | Christmas Cards (the 32).
4. Mark R1 and R5 as Mature. Both carry the f-word on the front, same as the D batch.

Pricing: none of these should list at $4.49. Median among listings that actually sell in the 30th keyword's top 100 is $5.85, and the two birth-year leaders sit at $6.99 and $7.04. $5.50 is the floor, and shipping labels are already your largest cost line.

That is 56 new listings against a 500-listing shop where the last 250 produced two sales. Worth listing these in two batches a week apart rather than one, so you can tell which line moved and which did not.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Nobody needs the perfect December.
Most of us just need one good afternoon in
it.

Merry Christmas.

I hope you get an entire day where nobody needs
anything from you.

Happy holidays.

The best part of this month is not the presents. It is the four days where nothing is scheduled.

Merry Christmas.

You are on my very short list of people
I actually want to see in December.

Happy holidays.

Whatever this December looks like for you, I hope
some of it is easy.
Merry Christmas.

I AM NOT GOING TO ASK HOW YOUR YEAR
WAS. I AM JUST GLAD YOU ARE HERE FOR THIS ONE.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Christmas is mostly
the same six people,
the same food and the same jokes. That is the whole point.

Merry Christmas.

Here is to a January that asks a great deal less of you
than this year did.

Happy new year.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO MY WIFE, WHO WILL READ THIS AND THEN
TELL ME WHAT I ACTUALLY MEANT BY IT.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO A BOYFRIEND WHO HAS NOT ASKED WHAT I WANT AND IS RUNNING OUT OF ROAD.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO MY GIRLFRIEND, WHO HAS A LIST, A SPREADSHEET, AND OPINIONS ABOUT MY WRAPPING.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO A HUSBAND WHO ASSEMBLED ALL OF IT AND ONLY SWORE TWICE.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO THE FRIEND I COMPLAIN TO ABOUT MY FAMILY BETWEEN THE 24TH AND THE 26TH.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.

YOU CARRIED ME THROUGH ELEVEN MONTHS AND WILL PROBABLY HAVE TO CARRY ME THROUGH DECEMBER TOO.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.
